It is sad to report the death of former Coventry City and Walsall player Graham Newton at the age of 76. He played a very small but important part in City's history, playing just eight games that helped the club over the line to the 1963-64 Third Division championship. Sir William Alexander, Earl of Stirling (c.1577-1640) [Not to be confused with Sir William Alexander (c.1602-1638)] William Alexander persuaded King James VII/II that the only way to get Scots to emigrate was to give them a new Scotland comparable to New France and New England; and the King conveyed the royal wish to the Council of New England and obtained from the latter the surrender of all ... Alfred Ernest Ramsey was born on 22 January 1920 at 6 Parrish Cottages, Halbutt Street in Dagenham, which was then an agrarian village in Essex, about 10 miles (16 km) east of central London. He was the third of five children, four boys and a girl, born to Herbert Ramsey, a manual labourer who worked a smallholding, kept pigs and drove a horse-drawn dustcart, and his wife Florence (née Bixby). 19 Mar 2019, 12:31pm Royal baby name and title odds: the runners and riders for Prince Harry and the Duchess of Sussex's first child
